HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 18 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Gaspin, c 20, St. Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

SIR,—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 50) caught a violent cold which settled in her leg, and ever since that time has been a constant sufferer, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical skill could advise was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the return of her leg was terrible. I had often read your advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment: and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without scars or scar, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 18 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.

(Signed) WILLIAM GASPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. Wadsworth, Builder, Gas Orgain of Buckhills, near Huddersfield, dated May 2, 1852.

To Professor Holloway.

SIR,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents of a Gas Work's explosion, which occasioned me to experience a bad recurrence at every variety of weather, without deriving any benefit, and was even told, that the leg must be amputated, but, in opposition to that opinion from Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in an short a time that few who have not witnessed it would credit the fact.

(Signed) WILLIAM WADSWORTH.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Rendcomb, Cirencester, dated December 30th, 1850.

To Professor Holloway.

DEAR SIR,—My wife had suffered from bad Breasts for more than six months, during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Hearing before he died of an awful wound in my own leg, of your unrivalled remedies, I determined at once to try your Pills and Ointment, and shortly gave them a trial, in the case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and I feel sure that various other branches of my family have derived from their use equally astonishing. I am strongly to recommend them to all my friends.

(Signed) FREDERICK TURNER.

The Pills and the Ointment should be used conjointly, in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Corns (Soft)	Scalds
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Sore Nipples
Burns	Ulcers	Sore-throats
Bunions	Fistulas	Skin diseases
Bite of Mosquitoes	Gout	Stubborn
and Sand Flies	Glandular Swellings	Sores
Coco-Bay	Jaundice	Sore-head
Chiego-foot	Lumbago	Tumours
Chilblains	Piles	Ulcers
Chapped hands	Rheumatism	Wounds

ZINC PAINTS,

WARRANTED PURE.

The New Jersey Zinc Co.,

WAREHOUSE 45 DEY STREET,

NEW YORK.

ARE prepared to supply their Zinc Paints at the following prices:

No. 1 White, ground in oil, 9c per lb.

No. 2 White, ground in oil, 8c per lb.

No. 3 White, ground in oil, 7c per lb.

Brown and Black, ground in oil, 6c per lb.

Dry White or Zinc, 6c per lb.

WHITE ZINC PAINT,

After thorough trial in Europe and the United States, has been found to reach its absolute and protective limit in body, more than any other paint—for whiteness and brilliancy it is entirely unrivalled—free from all poisonous properties so common and dangerous in other pigments, it will cover, equal weight, from 40 to 100 per cent more space than lead, and is, therefore, much cheaper to the consumer. As an inside paint, it will not turn yellow, even when exposed to the atmospheric gases of coal fires or the foul air of shops. Their White Zinc ground in varnish produces the most perfect as finish. Their

Brown and Black Zinc Paints

in a few hours form a hard and solid metallic coating upon wood, brick, iron and other metallic surfaces, and are remarkable for their fire proofing properties. They are specially adapted for marine purposes, having been found to resist the corroding action of salt water, so destructive to other paints.

MONDAY, JUNE 7, 1852.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

William G. Crosby

OF BELFAST.

FOR CONGRESS

ISRAEL WASHBURN Jr.

Whig State Convention.

The delegates assembled at City Hall, at 10 o'clock, Thursday, agreeably to previous arrangements.

The convention was called to order by E. W. Farley, Esq., of Newcastle, chairman of the State committee, and upon his nomination, Hon. Rufus C. Johnson, of Belfast, was chosen President and one Vice President, was chosen for each county, as follows:

York—Hon. Daniel Goodenow of Alfred.
Cumberland—Hon J S Little of Portland.
Oxford—John B. Merrow, Esq of Dixfield.
Lincoln—Hon Edward Robinson of Thomaston.
Kennebec—Hon Richard H Vose of Augusta.
Franklin—John W Perkins, Esq of Farmington.
Somerset—Calvin Selden of Norridgewock.
Waldo—Dr Joseph H Easterbrook of Camden.
Penobscot—Hon Samll Batman of Dixmont.
Hancock—Hon Thos Robinson of Ellsworth.
Piscataquis—Hon T S Pullen of Dover.
Washington—J Sumner, Esq of Lubec.
Aroostook—Wm Butterfield of Weston.
Secretaries—Wm W Woodbury of Portland, Wm H Wheeler of Augusta.

On motion of Mr Kennedy of Waldoboro, a committee of five on credentials was appointed by the chair, as follows:

John H Kennedy of Waldoborough, John A Peters of Bangor, Danl Smith Jr of Saco, John H Rice of Monson, Jeremiah Foster of East Machias.

On motion of Mr Appleton of Bangor, the chair appointed the following named gentleman a committee to draft resolutions—M J Appleton of Bangor, Monny Carter of Portland, Isaac Reed of Waldoboro', E D Bourne of Kennebunk, Noah Woods of Gardiner, T A Pike, of Calais, Wm J Avery of Belfast, J H Webster of Norridgewock, C Spofford of Deer Isle.

Mr Kimball of Rockland, offered a resolution instructing the committee on credentials to report in a separate list, the names of delegates claiming to represent towns other than their own residence—laid on the table. The Committee then proceeded to collect the credentials.—While they were out

Hon. George Evans, being present, was called upon to address the assembly, the mover premising his call by the remark that he had heard a report that Mr Evans was not a Scott man, but that he knew to the contrary.

Mr. Evens responded to the call. After speaking in the most complimentary manner of the present Executive of the United States and other gentlemen who had been named for that office, he went on to state that all present knew who would receive the unanimous support of the Whigs of Maine—it had already, in various ways, been made manifest. Their first choice was the illustrious warrior who had always led our country's forces to victory—and who had never shrunk from any peril however imminent, or any duty however arduous—who, under all circumstances, everywhere, had shown himself adequate to any emergency. None could entertain a doubt that under the administration of such a man, the affairs of government will be conducted with marked ability and faithfulness, &c.

His allusions to Gen. Scott were received by rounds of cheers that made the very hall tremble.

Mr. Pickering of Bangor, was next called to the floor. He stated that were he a delegate to the Baltimore Convention he would be thrown for that noble warrior, Winfield Scott! But he would have the delegates obey the voice of this convention.

Hon W P Fessenden being called out, stated that he had no question as to the ability, faithfulness, and patriotism of all the illustrious whig gentlemen who had been named as fitting candidates for President. If there be no question on the point, what is the point here to be settled—what but who will be most acceptable to the whole country? He had considered this subject carefully, had talked with gentlemen from different sections of the country, and endeavored to get at the honest public sentiment, and had no doubt that man was the illustrious hero and statesman, Winfield Scott.

Hon J S Little was next called out. He stated that his individual preferences were for Daniel Webster. He put the question, is there any one present who does not believe that he is the most able and competent, of all the candidates named, but inasmuch as it is by a combination of efforts, that the matter is to be decided, individual preferences must stand aside. He had been, to some degree, an observer of the signs of the times, and was free to say that he had failed to perceive a response from the people, to the great Webster conventions of New York and Boston—with regret he said it. He did not see any evidence of a possible chance for Mr. Webster's nomination. He believed that Gen. Scott is, and will be the man who will best unite the whigs of the country.

It should be stated that allusions to General Scott, from each of the speakers, called forth the most rapturous applause.]

Mr. Vose of Augusta, stated that he was born a whig, had lived a whig and should die a whig. His health had been such as at first, induced him to come to the conclusion not to attend the convention; but seeing in a Portland paper a call for a movement counter to his feelings and wishes, he had discarded bodily infirmity, and was present—his sentiments were in consonance with those of his illustrious friend from Kennebec, Gen. Evans—for Gen. Scott &c. He also, as did Mr Little, spoke his decided preference for Mr Crosby, as candidate for governor, and knew that he must be the unanimous choice of the whigs.

Mr Seaborn of Bangor, stated that the banner of the whigs of Maine in September next, will be Crosby and Maine; and if elected, the decision will be felt in every city, hamlet and log cabin in the Union, and will be the first gun which will herald the victory of the old hero of Chippewa and Chepultepec. Under his banner, the whigs will achieve a victory that never had a parallel, a victory announcing to the world that the United States are true to liberty and the interests of humanity—that banner which never yet went down in defeat.

Mr McGillis of Bangor, endorsed the sentiments expressed in regard to Gen. Scott by the gentlemen who had preceded him, in the most emphatic manner, and wound up by relating an anecdote. Some weeks, before he had been attending his lumber operations in the interior of Penobscot, and whilst waiting in the logging camp, he commenced talking politics with the cook, and remarked to him that Gen Scott had a great many friends in the country. "Yes," replied the cook, who was troubled with rheumatism, "he is—I more than half."

Mr Chapman of Biddeford said his preference for Mr Webster, but he doubted not that the whigs in the legislative caucus had expressed the sentiments of the whigs of the State—and he would not advocate a course that might result in defeat, &c.

Mr. Pike of Calais, advocated the Scott sentiment with emphasis, and thought that the present was the time for whig success in the State and National administration.

Mr Benson of Washington, expressed the same feelings and opinions.

The Committee on Credentials here came in with their report. The whole number of delegates present, was 434, an [illegible] of whom were from the County of Cumberland 3, 46 from York, 41 from Waldo, 2 from Aroostook, 28 from Washington, 29 from Franklin, 111 from Lincoln, 52 from Penobscot, 65 from Kennebec, 25 from Hancock, 11 from Piscataquis, 19 from Oxford and 26 from Somerset. The report of the Committee was accepted.

(Names omitted.)

Mr Sanborn, alluding to the apparent unanimity of the feelings of the Convention for Mr Crosby as candidate for Governor, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention, in view of the [illegible] the moral world, the [illegible] of the national necessity of WILLIAM G. CROSBY, of Belfast, to be Governor of Maine, and [illegible] the people of the State of the support [illegible] such distinguished [illegible].

The announcement of the resolution was received with hearty cheers, and on being seconded by Mr. J. Farley of Belfast, the Convention proceeded by acclamation to ratify the nomination.

Mr. Perkins moved a committee of three persons, to wait upon and notify the nominee of the Convention, and that the Convention adjourn to meet to receive him at half past three o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON.

The Convention assembled according to the adjournment.

Mr. Carter's proposal was then taken into consideration by the Convention at large in the place of a ballot, was [illegible] the whole.

The motion by Mr. Perkins was then seconded and carried, and the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to receive, wait and conduct to the Convention Mr. Crosby—Mr. Perkins of Belfast, Mr. Dunn of [illegible], Mr. Farley of Belfast, Mr. Sanborn of Bangor, Mr. Little of Portland, Mr. Kelley of Calais, Mr. Wilson of [illegible], Mr. Hall of Waldo, Mr. Wilson of [illegible] and Mr. Pickering of Bangor.

Mr. Little of Portland, then moved the name of Hon. George Evans as first candidate to be balloted for as Governor of Maine, for the next ensuing term of two years, which was seconded by Mr. Farley of Belfast and carried.

The result of the balloting was declared by the Committee as follows:

Whole number of votes,	434
Necessary to a choice,	218
George Evans,	353
George W. Pickering,	81

And George Evans was then declared elected Governor.

Mr. Pickering then arose and declined being run as candidate, and supported Mr. Evans as the choice of the Convention. The announcement was received with loud cheers, and the [illegible] of Mr. Evans, Mr. Pickering and Mr. Crosby.

On motion of Mr. Appleton of Bangor, the thanks of the Convention were unanimously voted to Hon. Goodenow and Little, for the able manner in which they presided over the deliberations of the meeting.

Three hearty cheers were then given for Gen. Scott.

Mr. Appleton of Bangor, called for three cheers for Kossuth, and the same were given with a will.

The following resolutions were then offered and passed unanimously, viz:

Resolved, That the Whigs of this State, in the spirit of the day and hour in which they are assembled, [illegible] the principles of their party [illegible] at the present crisis, [illegible] to the Constitution, [illegible] charitable, and [illegible] the best interests of the country, [illegible] to the Union, [illegible] the State [illegible] however [illegible] to [illegible] by [illegible].

Resolved, That we [illegible] the Whig members of the State Legislature, [illegible] should and approve [illegible] for the State, which [illegible] the State, and [illegible] upon [illegible] the Whig party [illegible] upon [illegible] upon national questions, and we [illegible] as local questions, that we will [illegible] any [illegible] friend who seeks to create strife among [illegible] any others, or upon any [illegible] whatever, [illegible] to [illegible] bread and butter [illegible] their country and their [illegible] more [illegible] than their private advantage, [illegible] principles, [illegible] and [illegible] other [illegible] are [illegible] we will be with us.

Resolved, That [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] of Whig [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
